

My daily routine: Miguel Garcia.

This week I'm getting up at 5:30 am to be able to get to my training sessions at 6:00 am, we train for 1 hour and then I'm driving to school, I'm there until 2 pm and then I go to my parents business until 6 o'clock, I help them that time, Sometimes I had soccer game at night and in others I rested.

On weekends I like to play soccer since I'm in several teams as well as going out to eat with my family or parting with my friends.
