Tell me about a mischief you did when you were a child (what did you do? Was it a dangerous event? Did your parents scold you?)

When I was six years old there was a party where we got together pure little cousins and started playing beauty salon we started painting our nails and painting our lips and face then a cousin told us she wanted a change of look and we cut the hair of another cousin they painted her hair, another had her eyebrow removed with a rake, and my mustache We continued playing very happy until our moms realized that we were not there and looked for us and when they found us they scolded us and they did not let me go to play and neither did my cousins.
