Write about what you did last Christmas holidays (where did you go? What did you eat? Did you have fun?)

my last vacation I went to Tapachula to visit my parents I was very happy to go to see why I missed them so much and I felt lonely when I arrived the first thing I did was hug my parents and my brothers my last vacation I went to Tapachula to visit my parents I was very happy to go to see why I missed them so much and I felt lonely when I arrived the first thing I did was hug my parents and my brothers I felt at home that day we went to eat shrimp, to the cabins then my mom and I went out to see the sea in the port and I missed being with my mom on the beach and I earned the emotion so I started crying, but of happiness because the time had come to be with my family I felt at home that day we went to eat shrimp, to the cabins then my mom and I went out to see the sea in the port and I missed being with my mom on the beach and I earned the emotion so I started crying, but of happiness because the time had come to be with my family , Then my mom gave me a tour for me to remember how wonderful and beautiful it felt to be at sea and in my place where I perished At night we went to eat crab and we were talking about all the moments that I was not and their achievements of my brothers was a spectacular experience with my family since the last time.
