Knowing My Story

Hello, my name is Cristina Andrea Sanchez Jimenez, I am twenty-nine years old, I am of Mexican nationality, I live in Pichucalco, in the Jorge Camacho neighborhood, on Juan Sabines Street, numbers four and five, 3 meters from a surveillance station, in the state of Chiapas, my mother gave birth to me at home, with the help of my grandmother who was a midwife.

My father's name was Andrés Sánchez Rosales, he passed away when he was barely a year and a half old, my mother's name is Enriqueta Jiménez Vázquez, she is fifty-three years old, she owns a food inn.

I have an older sister than me, her name is Tamar Sanchez Jimenez, she is thirty years old, she works in a pawn shop, she is single and lives with us, we have a good relationship as a sister and a friend, I tell her all the things that happen to me in the day and she tells me.

My school life began in the second grade of kindergarten, I studied at the Jorge Camacho Vidal school, I was a very quiet and reserved girl compared to my other classmates.

I started elementary school studying for two years at the "Carlos A. Vidal" school and then finished four years at the "Pichucalco school". I also studied high school at the same school.

I studied high school in the state of Tabasco, at the school "Colegio De Bachilleres De Tabasco" campus number nine, during the three years of study I had three friends, Auri, Débora and Alondra, with them I lived many new experiences, we went out partying, we always ate together in the school cafeteria and helped each other pass the subjects.

My musical tastes are the songs of Adele Laurie Blue Adkins who is a British singer-songwriter and instrumentalist, songs like "Set fire to the rain", "Hello", "Rolling in the deep", as well as I like Mexican artists like Carin Leon with songs like "matisse", "como lo hice yo" and "primera cita".

My favorite food is mango flavored chicken wings, I also like to eat mushroom pizza with pepperoni, other of my favorite foods is green spaghetti, the soft drink I like the most is Jamaican water.

My favorite movie of Mexican cinema is "Macario", it is a film of psychological horror, drama and Mexican mystery from nineteen thousand nine hundred and sixty, another of my favorite movies are "Pride and Prejudice" which is a romantic novel of English literature.

The book I have read is called "The Divine Comedy" by Dante Alighieri who was a Florentine poet of the thirteenth and sixteenth centuries, a fundamental work of Italian and universal literature. This poem marked the transition between medieval theocentric thought and the literary Renaissance, a second book I read is "The Perfume" story of a murderer, is the first novel by the German writer Patrick Süskind, published in 1985 under the original title "Das Parfum, die Geschichte eines Mörders".

Seven years ago I participated in an extracurricular sports activity "taekwondo" where we earned points for school, it is a martial art of Korean origin founded in nineteen fifty-five by General Choi Hong Hi, I was there for a year and I became an advanced green belt, I stopped attending because I had many subjects and left a lot of homework at school, I am currently practicing CrossFit which is a training technique that connects movements of different disciplines, such as weightlifting, metabolic training or gymnastics, I've only been attending for a month, although it's a very disciplined sport I feel very satisfied, I get to train with my sister from Monday to Friday morning, she and I always make teams to train and cheer each other on.

I like most animals, but the animal I like the most are cats, in my house I have a pet called "Panchito", he is a very affectionate cat, he likes to sleep all day on the couch and in bed, he likes to play with a small ball, he is black and he is one year and one month old. One animal I don't like are snakes, as they are crawling animals and are very dangerous.

I currently work at "CONAFE", National Council for Educational Development, it is a decentralized public agency of the Ministry of Public Education (SEP), which provides community education services for the well-being of girls from early childhood, children and adolescents who live in highly and very highly marginalized localities in our country, where it is not possible to have a regular educational service.

I am studying psychology because I really like to listen and be able to help people with psychological disorders, also because it will help me in my work, giving me the necessary tools to be a better teacher in the school classroom, it will also connect me with parents and be able to better understand the upbringing of their children, I want to finish my degree and be able to graduate with a high grade, since it is an effort for me to work and study at the same time.
