My name is Alexis González González, I am seventeen years old, I was born on October 15, 2005, I am of Mexican nationality, I live in Pichucalco Chiapas in a community called Camoapa second section, I was born in Pichucalco Chiapas in the hospital, my parents His name is Juan Carlos González Álvarez and my mother's name is Lucía González Pérez, my father is thirty-nine years old and my mother is thirty-three years old, I have two brothers and a sister, my sister's name is Yesenia González González and my two brothers are called Omar González González and Rigoberto González González, my sister is thirteen years old and my little brother is eleven years old and my other brother is fifteen years old, I studied in Kindergarten for three years, then I left Kindergarten and I entered primary school, I studied six years, then I went to secondary school where I studied three years and then I went to high school and studied another three years and studied for all of fourteen years to enter the university where I am currently studying university. UDS where I have been studying for just fifteen days where I am studying a career in nursing, the tastes I have in that I like to buy things, I like to play soccer every afternoon I play soccer with my friends and my cousins, the music I like is religious because I am a Seventh-day Adventist, where I have been baptized for 5 years, my favorite food is mole and stew where my mother prepares it very delicious, the movies I like are action, the books I like to read are bible and the lessons and morning classes, I like dogs and cats but I like dogs more because they are friendlier to me and they always walk with me, I have two cats, one is called Viki and the other is the tiger, I chose the nursing career as I really like it a lot and I want to help people cure the diseases they still have. In reality, I wanted to study medicine but it wasn't possible because I failed the Ceneval exams, and nursing was my second option and well, I like that a lot. And I really want to do it so that I can get ahead and help my family in everything and that they don't lack anything, that would be everything about my life, thank you.
