Know your cities

1.Rio de Janeiro: One of the most lively cities on the globe, famous for its mountains and landscapes, its beaches and, of course, its carnival

2.Florianópolis: The island city is one of the places in Brazil that offers the highest quality of life. Part of the blame lies with its crystal-clear lakes and almost virgin beaches. .

3.Salvador de Bahía: Which is one of the oldest towns in Latin America, will conquer you whether you go there attracted by its history or its surfing atmosphere Try their typical dishes... and repeat

1.Steakhouses: Carnivores cannot miss visiting one of the famous steakhouses: delicious grilled meats (pork, lamb, wild boar,...) and skewers will delight you.

2.Moqueca: This is a restorative fish stew made with tomato, onion, pepper and cilantro that is served very hot in clay bowls.

3.Acaraje: It is eaten as a snack between meals and is a kind of fried bun made with white beans and onion and filled with prawns.

4.Feijoada: It is made with black beans and salted pork and is served with rice and oranges. In its traditional recipe, 24 hours of preparation are necessary
