In this unit I chose the country of Japan, the truth is that this country has always caught my attention, to the extent that at a certain point, I wanted to be Japanese, that led me to win a scholarship to study in that country, so I will talk about the city of Tokyo Japan

Tokyo, Japan's bustling capital, mixes the ultra-modern and the traditional, can be visited from neon-lit skyscrapers to historic temples. The opulent Shinto Meiji Shrine is known for its towering gate and surrounding forests. The Imperial Palace is located in the middle of large public gardens. The city's various museums offer exhibits ranging from classical art (at the Tokyo National Museum) to a reconstructed kabuki theater (at the Edo-Tokyo Museum).

One of the most visited and notable attractions in Tokyo is the Sensō-ji, which is a Buddhist temple.
