DAILY ROUTINE

I start my days with physical activity because I like to exercise in the mornings, from Monday to Thursday I spend my time at the university and in the afternoons I work on my business, on Friday I also wake up early because I like to make the most of the day, I help my parents with the housework, they usually go out in the afternoons, on the weekends we all do different activities because only three people live in my house; My dad spends most of the day in the field, my mom visits my grandmother and my in charge of the house, the animals and the business we have at home.
