My daily routine

Saturday:

I start by getting up at 7 or 7:30 am, so I can start my work each weekend.

As first I get to keep the horses so that after an hour I can bathe him, I leave him in what dries while I have breakfast, after that I go to my work which is in the caves of the new ranch. I practically stay there all day from 10 in the morning until 6 in the afternoon. I return with the horse until I get to my house in my little town.

In the afternoon I start doing my homework and things I have pending from the university and if I don't have any I might go out and have fun on the weekends. For me, I spend them practically working. So my day is not very busy, it's kind of quiet from 9 a.m. 10 at night I go to bed to rest.
