Hey, do you know Germany? Yes, of course.

It's true, I think that's why many people know Germany.

Would you like to travel to Germany? Of course.

Why? I feel that it is a very nice place and I would like to go see the Berlin Wall

I would have liked to be of German nationality

How did you meet Germany?

Germany is well known for what happened many years ago, in the second World War, I think we have all seen movies or documentaries about it, so that is where many people know this country, more than anything because of the iconic character that everyone knows.
