

I AM...

My name is Samantha, I'm eighteen years old. I'm from Comitán and I live there. I am a psychology student. I study in UDS university in the first year. My favorite subject is English, I have always liked English, and I have been to different English schools.

I live with my family, my mom, my dad, my sister and my dog. I live three blocks from the center, next to the grocery store, behind the a hotel, called "hotel Cancino" . My sister is older than me for eight years and she just finished the university. My mom works in sales and my dad is engineer. My parents have been married for sixteen years. And my dog is two years old, he is a very pretty dog, always sleeps an hour in the afternoon.

I love playing tennis, go to parties, stay with my family and friends, listen to music and travel.
