TEXT

My mother and I live in the city of Comitán, on weekends she comes home from work, she is a nurse, we go out to eat somewhere and hang out or sometimes we stay at home watching movies, during the week I am alone, I prepare my food , I do the cleaning, when I am free I do little exercise or play video games without first doing my homework. Actually, from Monday to Thursday my routine is the same, nothing changes, however from Friday to Sunday what I do varies, it is not always the same, we may have time with my mother to go out or otherwise we are just at home, depending on whether there are pending duties to do.
