When is the best time to go?

All seasons of the year have their appeal.

- ❖ Summer (June to August) is when it is warmest and the sun shines for the longest time.
- ❖ In winter (December to March), there is often snow: this white splendor turns the landscape and villages into a magical world.
- ❖ In spring (April and May), flowers and leaves emerge.
- ❖ In autumn the forests turn colorful again and it is harvest time.

And adding that the Swiss are really kind and polite people even when dealing with a stranger.
