Conversation with a family member

My husband is Abraam Cabrera. He is 36 years old and is an engineer. He Works in the refinery, his job consists of planning, organizing, scheduling, directing and controlling construction and assembly depending on the type of work being carried out at that time. He really loves his job because each construction is different and important to him, since in each Project many people depend on him. Sometimes his work is stressful because they have a lot of construction to do, but he always loves what he does and is happy with what he achieves.
