

My name is María José, and this is my house. Upon entering my house we find the living room, pink cover, light blue furniture, pink and brown pillows, and a painting to take photos, as we walk we have the brown dining room with light blue chairs, next to it we have a lamp that is for heating, a mirror and below a table with objects, in the hallway to the left is the kitchen that is white with a cupboard and a table to eat there, it has many doors to store everything and the refrigerador is my favorita part from the kitchen, when you leave the kitchen you find my parents' room in the photo hallway, their room has a bed, lamps, TV, closet, bureaus, and photos of my sisters and mine, when you leave their room You find the backyard where there is a rest room, where my dad watches TV, to the right is my room which is white with a closet, many ballet things and my favorite place is my bed, on the secando floor is where they cash cloches. And a room to store objects. and I forgot the bathroom, in my house there are 3 bathrooms, in my parents' room, in the hallway and in my room, each one has a shower, bathroom and to wash hands.
