Hello, this is my dream home; I'm sure you're interested in knowing what it's like, well, since I'm cool, I'm going to describe it to you. My house has two floors, not counting the attic or basement; It's very big, I live on my own ranch. On the first floor there is a TV room, in that TV room there are six sofa beds and two poufs, in the center of the sofas and poufs there is a sitting table, and obviously there is a big screen; There is also a projector in that room. Then there is a huge hallway, where the eight bedrooms are located, in each bedroom there is a bathroom.

On the ground floor there is a marble dining room, there are chairs and armchairs; In that same place where the dining room is, there is also the kitchen, in a few words it is a kitchen-dining room. There is also a living room, where there is an armchair, and a screen and projector.

The basement is a spacious place where there are board games, it is a comfortable and fun place, because there are many games, such as billiards, there are also armchairs and bean bags, and obviously there is a living table; A fun fact is, it's the only place where there's no TV or projector.

In the attic is a place where there is a really beautiful view; There is a dining table and a kitchen, there are also armchairs. Well, that's my dream home. Coming soon my house.
