My Dream House

My house has only one floor because I live alone lol, In the patio area there is the pool and some chairs. Inside we can see the living room, which is incredible, where there is a television and a fireplace, Next door is the kitchen, which is my favorite part because I like to cook, At the back is my room with a very large closet because I love clothes. And right there is the bathroom with a jacuzzi. In my room I have many paintings, decorative things, candles, I love candles. and finally in the back where I keep my car.
