My dream house

My dream house will have a modern, white facade with a large garage and a nice terrace.

I want the living room to be white and have a large armchair with a large television and for it to be very cozy.

I want the dining room to be minimalist, with wood and white furniture, the dining room to be small but spacious with warm lights.

The kitchen will be spacious to cook with my entire family, it will be white with an island for my children to have breakfast, it will have a large refrigerator and electric stove.

The bathroom will be white with marble. In it there is a glass shower with a spacious sink to put my personal hygiene products.

In my dream bedroom there is a large bed, very cozy and soft, there are also large windows with a beautiful view.

In the yard of my dreams there will be a covered part and the other part outdoors with grass, I will have grills for meat and a large table
