MI FIN DE SEMANA PERFECTO

This weekend will be a great weekend. On Saturday I have to give a presentation at my university about fluid therapy.

I'm leaving school and it's my turn to get home to get ready since it's my nephew's communion and he chose me as his godmother and we have to be punctual at 4:00 pm at the church where said mass will be held. When we finish we will go to all have dinner as a family.

On Sunday we will all go to some pools together since my nephew asked for a pool with his friends to celebrate receiving his sacrament.

My sister next door won't be able to come since she is in Playa del Carmen and some personal things got complicated and it will be difficult for her to get there.

As I am the godmother, my brother-in-law asked me what do you want to eat that day, my friend? I replied, what do you think if we organized some roast meats and that same day we celebrated your brother's birthday? He replied that it is a very good idea. And we are already organizing ourselves among the family to know what each person will wear to be together and live together all day and celebrate.

Let's hope it will be an unforgettable weekend and united as the great family that we are and continue to be.
