

Hernández Magdaleno Avril Sundury

Arreola Jiménez Eduardo Enrique

Universidad Del Sureste

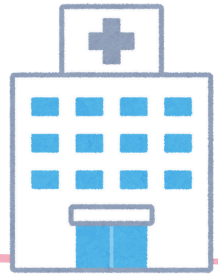

Licenciatura en enfermería

English

Tapachula, Chiapas.

6/JULIO/2024

Hospital jobs and personnels

charge nurse/Sister

Works in hospitals, doctor's offices, nursing homes, urgent care centers, rehabilitation centers and other facilities, managing a nursing unit for a set period of time. They make sure everything runs smoothly and efficiently.

cleaner

Carry out cleaning tasks on floors, bathrooms, windows, walls, ceilings and other furniture in general, applying disinfection procedures. Collect hospital waste from the service to which you are assigned and dispose of it in accordance with established standards.

consultant

Advises on the contribution or solutions offered by ICT to improve the organization, management or provision of health services. Analyzes, identifies and interprets the client's needs in the management of health information, and proposes appropriate e-Health solutions.

Paramedic

Provide urgent medical attention, and provide first aid to stabilize users, reporting their status to the doctor. 3. Transfer the user to a Hospital Unit, if required, monitoring their health status, according to the doctor's instructions.
ya

Porter

Collect and properly dispose of garbage and medical waste, following infection control guidelines. Replenish supplies such as towels, toilet paper, soap, and other essential items in public and patient areas.

Receptionist

Welcome patients, families, and other visitors as they arrive at the reception area, and provide them with any information they need.

Surgeon

is a professional trained to offer high-quality general medicine services, capable of comprehensively addressing, from an individual, family or community point of view, the needs of health promotion, prevention, recovery and/or rehabilitation, with emphasis on clinic

Triage nurse

It is understood as the verbal report between the nursing staff at the time of starting and ending a work shift, it is a routine activity in order to organize and plan the relevant interventions, to provide comprehensive and quality care.

Scrubs nurse

provides assistance to the patient but also to the medical staff. Therefore, its functions are very varied: Help patients in the administration of treatments prescribed by their doctor. Apply certain physical treatments such as massages, stretching, etc.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Libro de inglés

English for nursing 2