

Jonathan Farid Álvarez Méndez

Contaduría pública y finanzas

Materia: Ingles

Actividad: Conceptual map

Maestra: Jhoani Elizabeth Pérez López

Fecha de entrega: 11/ Noviembre/ 2024

IT'S nice to meet you

The verb be

- NEGATIVE Subject-to-be-not-complement
- Positive subject-to-be-complement
- Interrogative to-be-subject-complement?
- To be

am - I'm are - you're is - he's is - she's is - his are - were are - you're are - there

verb to be am - I - are I - she - they
He - we - you is

Possessive adjs

My, your, his, her
Possessive adjectives are words that show who owns something or who it belongs to.
I - My She - Her
You - your It - Its
He - His We - our They - their

ARTICLE A/AN

A - B - C - V - X - Z
H - J - K - L - M - N
P - R - S - T
W - X - Y - Z

We use A when the next word starts with the sound of a consonant

A School

AN → A - E - I - O - U

We use AN when the next word starts with the sound of a vowel or with a mute h

AN Elephant

A School

AN Elephant

Use of this and those

These are used when the objects and people we want to point out are plural.

This is a clock

These are clocks

The clock is in the box.

Prepositions of Place

Prepositions of Place are those that express the exact positions in which an element is located (Cresson, object, animal, etc.)

How are prepositions of Place used?

Prepositions of Place are always placed between the verb and the element that expresses the place where something or someone is located

I am listening music in the bathroom

- Richards (Jack), (2013) Interchange intro. Cambridge

- Doff, Adrian, (2016) Empower, Cambridge

- Richards (Jack), (2011) Four corners. Cambridge

- Puchta, Herbert, (2016) Think, Cambridge

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9p-NhWwZQ>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ca5rNM63v58>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FX61xKRiJey>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FdHk55hP6lo>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4530Yfmqoco&t=65>

