Describe

This photo was taken on May fifth around 3 o'clock. On this day, it was my birthday. I was turning 18 years old. I'm surrounded by my family in a beautiful garden setting. We're standing under a natural archway made of branches, with lush green plants and trees around us. In this picture you can see my little brother's, my mom, my grandma and me.

My grandma was wearing a long dress with flowers. The flowers are blue, red and green. My mom was wearing a pink blouse and a black jacket. My brothers were wearing a pink button down shirt with long sleeves and blue jeans. I was wearing a long black dress and a white jacket. My little brother, standing to my right, is surprisingly the same height as me, despite being only 11 years old. He shares the same black hair as my other little brother, me, and my mom.

I had an amazing time with my family that day.
