

COLLAGE COREA DEL SUR

Class: Inglés

GASTRONOMY

Kimchi: An essential dish, usually made of fermented cabbage, that accompanies most meals.

• Bibimbap: A mixed rice dish with vegetables, meat, and egg, known for its colorful presentation.

ART AND MUSIC

Traditional Music: Includes styles such as pansori (musical storytelling) and samulnori (percussion music).

Calligraphy and Painting: Korean calligraphy, known as "seoye," is highly valued, as well as ink painting.

POP CULTURE

K-Pop and K-Dramas: Pop music and TV series have gained worldwide popularity, influencing global youth culture.

Christian Reynaldo
Ruiz Martinez

FESTIVALS

Seollal (Lunar New Year): Celebrated with ancestral rituals, traditional foods, and family gatherings.

Chuseok (Thanksgiving Day): A festival to honor ancestors, prepare special foods, and hold family gatherings.

TRADITIONAL CLOTHING

Hanbok: Traditional attire worn during festivals and ceremonies, characterized by vibrant colors and simple designs.

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Confucianism: It has influenced the social structure and family relationships, promoting respect for elders and the importance of education.

Buddhism: Still has a significant presence and is reflected in temples and rituals.

CEREMONIES

BAEK-IL: CELEBRATION OF A CHILD'S FIRST 100 DAYS, INCLUDING RITUALS AND GIFTS.
• DOLJANCHI: A FIRST BIRTHDAY PARTY THAT FEATURES A SPECIAL CEREMONY.

