In this picture we can see a family running in a beautiful park surrounded by trees at twelve o'clock in the afternoon.

The mom is wearing a pink blouse, black leggings and turquoise tennis; next to her we can see her daughter who is wearing a neon green t-shirt, black shorts and blue tennis.

The little boy is wearing a light gray, gray and black stripes t-shirt, black shorts as well with tennis.

And the dad, who is wearing a gray sweater, black shorts just like his kids and some white tennis.

As we can see the daughter, the son and the mother, all three have gorgeous curly hair tied in a ponytail which makes them look very alike.

Although the daughter already looks a lot like her mother, the ponytail makes her look even more like her.

They all are really happy to spend time as a family and they are definitely not going to forget this day.
