United States

Although English is the most widely spoken language in the United States, Americans communicate in more than three hundred fifty languages. According to the Census Bureau, some of the most widely spoken languages other than English are Spanish, Chinese, Tagalog, Vietnamese and Arabic.

The United States (usa) is located in North America, between the Pacific and Atlantic oceans and is bordered to the north by Canada and to the south by Mexico.

United States

The flag of the United States of America is composed of:

thirteen horizontal stripes of equal size, alternating red and white colors.

A blue rectangle in the upper left corner, called a canton, with fifty white five pointed stars.

Thanksgiving Day: one of the country's most important traditions, celebrating the 17th century harvest with a big family meal.

Independence Day (July 4) celebrated with fireworks, barbecues, baseball and parades.

Halloween: one of the most famous holidays in the country, which has been exported to other countries.

Christmas: it is celebrated with great enthusiasm due to the high percentage of Christian population.
