Cuatrimestre 1.

On the day of my graduation I was wearing a very nice dress it was white with pink, my white sneakers a silver necklace with a pastel pink heart charm on the right side of me is my aunt, she is wearing a black dress with stripes and a blue jacket, she also has black shoes, on my left side is my cousin next to her baby and she is dressed in a mint colored blouse, black pants and black boots, her baby is dressed in a white shirt and jeans, as well as white socks. The day was wonderful, even the sky was blue and the clouds were beautiful everything around was very green and colorful. That day I felt too happy for having finished a stage that was too important in my life. At the end of the event we went to eat at a restaurant and did activities that we enjoyed.
