

Universidad del Sureste Campus Comitán

Nombre del tema:

INDIA

Nombre del alumno:

Ximena Jaras Gordillo

Grado: 1

Grupo: B

Materia:

INGLES I

Nombre del profesor:

RAFAEL IVAN GUILLEN ALCALA

LA INDIA

INDIA IS A NATIONAL STATE WHOSE OFFICIAL NAME IS THE REPUBLIC OF INDIA. IT IS LOCATED IN SOUTHERN ASIA AND BORDERS SRI LANKA TO THE SOUTH.

WHY IS IT CALLED "INDIA"?

THE NAME COMES FROM ANCIENT GREEK, AND WAS HOW THE TERRITORY NEAR THE INDUS RIVER WAS NAMED.

Religion in India

The culture of India is one of the most diverse and rich in the world. It is the birthplace of four great religions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and Sikhism. There are also foreign religions such as Islam, Christianity, and Judaism.

The flag of India.

It is made up of a tricolor orange, white and green pavilion, known as trianga. In the center there is a dark blue wheel with twenty-four peaks, called ashoka chakra.

What is the gastronomy like in India?

In Indian cuisine, the first thing that catches your attention is the flavor of spices and seasonings, perfectly combined to enhance the flavor of the dishes. Intense smells, bright colors and spicy preparations represent Indian cuisine.

What is a thali?

In India food is not served on plates. It is served on a tray called a thali and when you go to an Indian restaurant they will offer you different thalis. Thalis of vegetables, meat, fish, etc. The traditional way of eating in India is with the hand, always with the right.

THALI

What is bindi?

It is the point that women wear on their foreheads. Married women make this red point using kumkum, a powder intended for this purpose. On the other hand, single women paint it black.

The bindi has a religious meaning. It refers to the sixth chakra,

Cows in India

Cows in India symbolize mother earth, nature, fertility and abundance. These can receive different names depending on the connections they have with gods and deities.

