According to tradition, its owner is a shoe seller who had it build with this emblematic form back in 1948

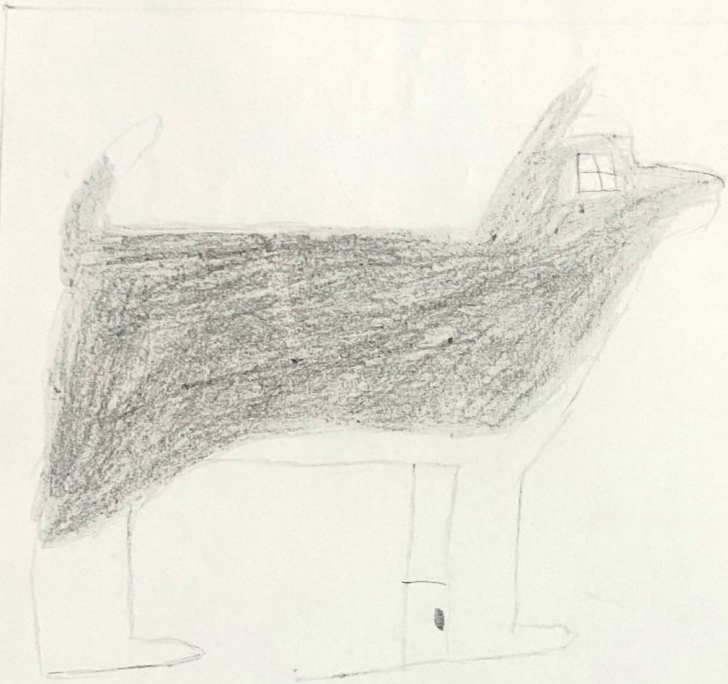

Its owner did raise this house with the aim of inhabiting it. And with a look it is enough to understand it: it has three floors and a terrace, and is located in the center of a green garden with flowers

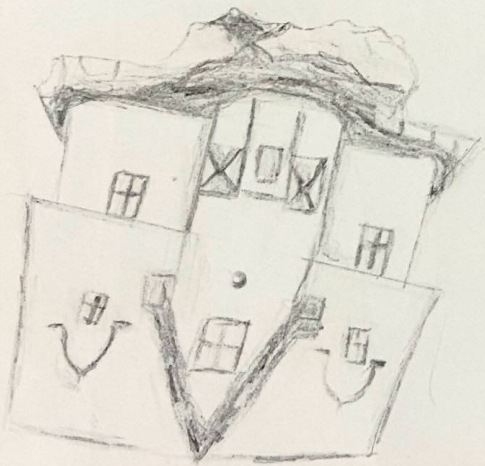

En 1992 se edifico the TEA house was a build in Washington, USA. This TEA house was build in memory of the incidents of corruption in the vicinity of President Warren G. Harding related to the Wyoming oil reserve, and which were called "The Teapot Dome Scandal". In addition, this original and sarcastic Teo House also serves as a gas station

With a very eccentric, it is separated into two parts: a 9 meter Beagle dog and a 3.5 meter puppy. He has two rooms, one in the dog's belly and the other in his head, while the bathroom is in his butt. Of course, it doesn't have a kitchen.

In Symbard, Poland, there is a construction that breaks with any commandment of architecture. The Upside Down House - or the invented house - was created by Daniel Czapiewski with the idea of illustrating the communist era and graphing the changes that have occurred today. As if everything was turned around.
