Last vacations was so funny for me, I spent a lot of time with my family. From the first day of holidays. I live alone in Comitán so I usually miss my family. So every day in vacation I woke up very happy of being in my home with my family. I also missed my cousins, that live in Palenque, although we would go in some days, I couldn't wait so see them so, one day I asked to my Dad if I could travel to Palenque before we went all together, the thing is that we weren't to be there much time in Palenque because I had to be in Comitán in few time again, that's why I decided to travel, so my dad said that he couldn't travel in that day but If I wanted I should have asked him before, and said that It was okay that I traveled to Palenque. I packed my clothes that day and I travel the next day. Therefore I woke up very exciting to see my cousins. The first thing I did was eat breakfast, then I went to the place where the vans are and I just wait for the van to leave. I arrived to Palenque at noon and my cousins were waiting for me. I finally saw my family and we did a lot of funny things to spend the vacations.
