UDS

Mi Universidad

Name of student: Dayra Mayrín Aguilar Gómez.

Name of teacher: Jhoani Elizabeth López Pérez.

Name of subjetct: English 2.

Name of work: Concept map.

SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE

Verbal tense, wich serves to describe habitual actions, general facts, universal truths and permament situations.

Negative (-)
Sujeto + auxilar do/does not + verbo + Complemento

Afirmative (+)
Sujeto + verbo + Complemento

Interrogative (?)
Auxiliar do/des + Sujeto + verbo + complemento.

Rules

- In the person singular, the verb always ends in -s.
- When verbs end in "o, sh, ch, x and z" you must add -es to the end.
- For the negative and interrogative forms, we use Does (third person auxiliar y 'Do) + the informative of the verb.
- Verbs ending in -y: in the third person singular, the -y is changed to -ies. Exception when a vovel procedes the -y.

Example

+ Your cat can jump between trees.
- Your cat can not jump betwen trees.
? Can your cat jump between trees?

Present simple: uso, conjugación y ejemplos | British Council, s.f.