My dreams house

My dream house is small, there are three bedrooms, there is also a kitchen and a living room, there is also a garage. I also want it to have a garden and a backyard. In my room there is a bed, there is also a table for design and drawing. In the living room there is a projector, a sofa set, a living room table. I would also like it to have video games, lots of books, photographs, some travel souvenirs and paintings.

I love to exercise, that's why I would love to have a gym in the backyard with lots of weights and a pool so I can swim and have fun with my family.
