This is my dream house. I've wanted something like this since I was little. That's why today I'm trying to fight for that dream to come true and no matter the process, I'm going to achieve it.

There are five cushions in the living room

There are curtains in the bedroom

There is a sink in the toilet

There is one plant in the living room

There is an armchair in the bedroom

There isn't an oven in the kitchen

There aren't lamps in the bedroom

There is a microwave in the kitchen

There aren't pots in the kitchen
