

Tom (Plumber): Hi, Emma! What do you do?

Emma (Electrician): Hi, Tom! I am an electrician. I fix electrical problems and install lights. What about you?

Tom: I am a plumber. I repair pipes and fix leaks. Today, I work under the sink.

Emma: That sounds interesting! Look, David is painting the wall.

David (Painter): Yes, I am a painter. I paint houses and buildings every day. I always use different colors to make places look nice.

Tom: That's great! We all have important jobs.

Emma: Yes! A house needs a plumber, an electrician, and a painter to look perfect!

David: Exactly! Now, let's finish our work!
