The house of my dreams would have a classic Mexican style, a very large patio for my pets and a pool, also palm trees and fruit trees.

My house would have two floors, a huge living room, a game room with a large television and speakers to play video games, a pool table and comfortable armchairs, would have a room that would be the closet with lots of lighting and large mirrors, my dream house must also have a jacuzzi or a bathtub, the most important part would be the kitchen, I would like it to be spacious and with many dishes with classic Mexican styles and also a window overlooking the patio or a fountain.
