Ingles Jobs

Plumber: Hello, how are you both today?

Electrician: Hi! I'm good, thank you. How about you?

Painter: I'm doing well, thanks! Are we all ready for the job?

Plumber: Yes, I'm ready. I'm just fixing the sink in the kitchen. It's leaking.

Electrician: Oh, I'm working on the lights in the living room. The wiring needs some adjustments.

Painter: I will start with the walls in the hallway. I need to paint them before the furniture goes in.

Plumber: Sounds good. I usually finish my work quickly, so I'll be done soon.

Electrician: That's perfect. I'll finish the lights in a couple of hours.

Painter: Great! I need the walls dry before I can continue, so I will start once you both finish your tasks.

Plumber: I always check the pipes carefully. I want to avoid problems later.

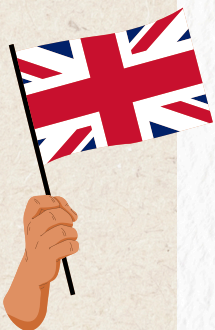

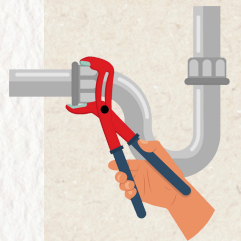

Electrician: I test the connections twice to be sure everything works well.

Painter: I make sure to apply a smooth coat. I don't like rough surfaces.

Plumber: Well, it looks like we all know what to do!

Electrician: Absolutely. It's teamwork!

Painter: Yes, we all make the place look great.
