THE DAY I HAD SURGERY

On December 6th I returned home with my motorcycle, after worked, but I was coming fast. It was nighttime when a car in the distance dazzled me, and I couldn't saw the road, When, I didn't saw a pile of sand, and I fell off the motorcycle.

While I was going to the hospital, my parents left a meeting to go check on me, Then they took an X-ray and I fractured my clavicle. The doctor said I would had surgery. After the surgery I was in the room with my parents when my family came to see me. Then the next day while I was sleeping they woke me up to go home, I felt so happy.

My family advised me not to drive fast. After that accident, I learned drove slowly.
