happy birthday to me

Reliving this story, last year on 25th may I traveled to Comitán because I had a rehearsal for the fair parade. In the afternoon I returned home because one of my friends was getting married, and she asked me to be godfather of her bouquet but the bouquet was for the reception, while she was at mass, I was on my way to the reception. The bride and groom arrived at the party during my stay, I really enjoyed it. The next day, 26th may, in the afternoon I traveled to Trinitaria where my best friend lives. She invited me to go to her fair, it is part of the pre-birthday that we have been doing for two years in a row. That plan has become a tradition. She knows I like her a lot. the marimba and just that day I was going to play the marimba, while she was getting ready I was lying in bed, when she finished we went to the park, we danced a lot at the end we returned to her house. The next day the pre-birthday was still going on, we went to the lakes of Montebello, but the problem was that that day I had to return home because my birthday is the 28th, well anyway we went, we visited all the lakes, my friend decided to go to swimming while I was on the shore watching, we visited the art house, some very beautiful paintings which are prohibited to record and take photos, and how lucky because just that day they were having an exhibition of a painting. and they gave us permission to record which was surprising. I really liked it because the painting had neon colors and the effect was wonderful, but not everything was joy, my friend was recording and I told her that we had to go back because it was already late and as I mentioned before, I had to return home that same day, bad luck for me, I didn't find transportation because we arrived very late, so we had to return to my friend's house and at night we decided to go to the fair, we were in the front row at the concert. The next day was my birthday, I was super happy, I had to travel very early, being at home I started to organize myself and have everything ready because the birthday party was in the afternoon, I was with all my friends, while I was eating my family had me a surprise they brought me a mariachi, I was very excited, we continued dancing and enjoying the afternoon, that's how the four days ended.

Conclusion

This gave me tiredness, and a satisfaction of not postponing what I can do today, I lived the four best days of last year celebrating myself for turning another year older, no matter how tragic they happened, but in the face of the adversity of everything, happiness and surprises They were always present.
