

ME

Hello! My name is Jesús Alexis Rodríguez Ovando. I was born on February 2, 2008, in Tuxtla Gutiérrez. I've always been a restless kid. I learned to walk on a soccer field, and my parents knew I'd love soccer.

My daily routine is intense. From Monday to Thursday, I wake up at 5 am to train soccer. After training, I go to school, and in the afternoon, I have another training session. On Fridays, after training, I hang out with my friends. On Saturdays, I play soccer matches with my team, and Sundays I spend with my family.

My hobbies are listening to music, playing video games, and spending time with my family. My skills are being good at soccer, being sociable, and understanding things quickly.

Let me know if you need anything else!
