Mexico is a very big place and is one of the largest cities, along with its huge population it has very wonderful places where you can better appreciate the views, it has some of the best tourist places for example Monterrey Nuevo Leon. where it has the best restaurants and the best food. The people are also very friendly. Well, some, but if you need support, they will not hesitate to help you.

Monterrey nuevo león is one of the very beautiful places that are good for sightseeing. It has several very beautiful buildings and incredible views with sunsets that you will like to stay for a while.

The Zócalo of Mexico City is located in the Plaza de la Constitución, in the Centro neighborhood, Cuauhtémoc municipality.

The historic center of Mexico City is located in the municipal district of Cuauhtémoc. It has a little more than nine square kilometers and occupies 668 blocks. It contains 9,000 buildings, of which 1,550 have been declared of historical importance.

¿how to get to the zocalo?, Mexico City Metro Line 2, also known as the Blue Line, is the one that takes you to the Zócalo/Tenochtitlan station. It is located in the Historic Center of the city, in the Cuauhtémoc district. It is an underground station with two side platforms. It operates between the Allende and Pino Suárez stations.
