Introduction

For this project, I chose to go to the mountains. It is a cold and natural place, perfect for hiking and enjoying the quiet. That's why I packed my perfect suitcase with 8 important things I need for this trip.

1. These hiking boots

These boots are brown and strong. They are big and comfortable, not small. I need these boots because they are good for walking on rocks. How strong are these boots!

2. This winter jacket

This jacket is blue and warm. It is thick and not light.
I want this jacket because it keeps me warm.
How warm this jacket is!

3. This wool hat

This hat is black and soft. It is small and cozy, not big.

I have this hat to protect my head from the cold.

What a soft and warm hat!

4. These gloves

These gloves are gray and warm.
They are flexible and not stiff.
I need these gloves to cover my hands. How flexible these gloves are!

5. These sunglasses

These sunglasses are black and modern.
They are new and not old.
I want these sunglasses for the sunny days.
What cool sunglasses!

6. This backpack

This backpack is green and large. It is heavy and not light.

I have this backpack to carry my clothes and food.

How heavy this backpack is!

7. This water bottle

This bottle is blue and practical. It is full and not empty.
I need this bottle to stay hydrated.
What a useful and full bottle!

8. This map and this compass

This map and compass are useful and important. They are small and not big. I want this map and compass to explore safely.

How useful this set is!

Final paragraph

I chose the mountains because I love nature and fresh air. I enjoy walking on trails and listening to the silence. It's the perfect place to relax and have a great adventure.
