LIFE EVENTS

I was born in 2006, my dad was the first to carry me. It was I began my life.

Over time I grew and experienced skills like when I learned to ride a bike.

When I was 1 year and 3 months old I took my first steps.

I entered university and began a new and beautiful thing because I am studying what I like a lot.

Since I was very young I began with my dream of being a nurse, so I started from kindergarten at the age of 4, I began with suffering.
