DANNA MAYTE HERNÁNDEZ CALIT

DOCTOR

Since I was little, I've always been clear about what I wanted to study. I've always been passionate about medicine. My biggest dream is to become a great doctor. I've always had a passion for helping people. It's a well-paid job and the job I've always dreamed of, but this job is very demanding and difficult because it's in the healthcare field, and it requires a great deal of commitment and responsibility from the doctors and nurses.
